DEDICATION

In appreciation of her services as Senn Treasurer the last three years, the 1945 Forum Annual staff dedicates this book to Miss Olive Kunz. In this position her aid has been invaluable to both the Senn News and the Forum Annual, as well as to the entire school.

WHEN WE SENIORS WERE FRESHMEN WE CONTRIBUTED OUR COINS FOR THE PURCHASE OF THIS AMBULANCE NOW USED FOR RED CROSS WORK IN MANY WAYS IN CHICAGO. WHEN YOU SEE AMBULANCE NUMBER 28 ON THE STREETS AND HIGHWAYS YOU WILL KNOW THAT IT IS ONE OF SENN'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE RED CROSS.

January Class, 1945

Treasurer Elmer Linden, Luncheon Chairman Corky Childress, President Herb Haberstroh, Vice President Tex McCracken, Secretary Shirley Swank, Judge Arthur Lueders.

IN January 1941 the Freshman class looked forward to four years of high school life here at Senn. Now in 1945 they can look back upon those four years and be proud.

The class chose Herb Haberstroh for president, backed by Bob McCracken, vice president and Art Lueders, Marshal Judge. There were runoffs for secretary, treasurer and luncheon chairman. The results showed that Shirley Swank, Elmer Linden and Corinne Childress were thought capable of filling those offices.

Throughout the semester this class made known its outstanding scholastic record, and its willingness and spirit in taking part in school activities. Dependability and alertness were shown when it came to various school functions and the purchasing of stamps and bonds for the war effort.

The Senior Luncheon—the last complete gathering of class and teachers at the Edgewater Beach was an illustrious event at which classmates thoughtfully remembered the boys who had to leave for service previous to that day.

The graduation exercises held in the Senn Auditorium made a perfect ending to high school careers of the Class of January, 1945.

June Class, 1945

Secretary Marjorie Wallace, Vice President Lawrence Krulewitch, Adviser Dr. Zimmerman, Judge Hans Bauer, Treasurer Sanford Arenberg, President Eric Nyberg, Principal Davidson.

THE Class of June, 1945, had long been awaiting their last semester at Senn, but as it began there were many whose memories reflected back to September, 1941, when they entered. Graduation preparations started, however, and first on the list was the election. Although the competition was strong, tall Eric Nyberg was chosen to represent the class as president, with Lawrence Krulewitch his chief assistant in the office of vice-president. Sanford Arenberg was responsible for class jewelry and money matters, whereas Marjorie Wallace took care of the graduation announcements and all literary matters. At the heads of the Prom and Luncheon committees were Enid Reich and Joyce Bahusky, respectively, and Hans Bauer did a noble job as marshal judge.

One of the greatest thrills of that semester, which will long be remembered, was of our Senior Basketball Team, who won the City Championship for the year, after a long succession of victorious games.

Prom night—June 16—might be called "the end of a perfect year" as it was planned to perfection by Enid Reich and her committee.

June 21, the day of the luncheon and graduation, was the fulfillment of our every dream.

Our thoughts and thanks will often go back to Principal Davidson and our Senior Adviser, Dr. Zimmerman, for their splendid guidance through four of our happiest years.

All School Council

SENN All School Council proved beyond the shadow of a doubt during the fall semester that school government by the students is successful.

The council is headed by Senn's Principal, Mr. Davidson. The delegates include the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of each class, and in addition 3A, 4B, and 4A Marshal Judges, and 4A luncheon chairman.

In addition to this the Council includes a member from each division room so that they may report all new activities. In this way they learn more about Senn and may take part in the direct planning of many affairs.

This semester's accomplishments were many, among which was the Thanksgiving Collection. In this the students outdid themselves by contributing more than their quota. The amount due was then given to the Children's Aid Society. With the excess money a grand party was given for the children at the Chicago Parental School.

This past year our attention has been directed more than ever toward the various War Bond and Stamp drives. The Council pushes these drives knowing that each bond bought brings Victory closer.

The June Council lived up to the excellent example set for them by the fall Council. They too, were active in the sale of War Bonds and Stamps and got behind the paper drives to make them a credit to Senn. When the Red Cross drive was going on the Council backed this to its successful end.

Another thing accredited to the June Council is the feeling of good sportsmanship they promoted among the students.

In their elections they found room to include another member to the list of officers by electing a Prom Chairman.

Yes, Senn is proud of the 1944-45 All School Council and its director, Principal David M. Davidson, for all they have accomplished not only for the War Effort but for the school as well.

1945 Forum Annual

IN spite of the hardships entailed in getting out a war time book, the Forum staff under their experienced leader, Miss Corcoran, came through to bring the 1945 Annual out on time and also with many new ideas. The theme is implied, the inside and outside of a war time school in action.

This year's Co-editors-in-chief, Helen O'Brien and Edna Walters, stayed in the publications room busily engrossed with work long after the last straggling student had left the school and the janitors had locked the doors.

Also well acquainted with the pump room exit were Lois Chimberoff, the hard-working Biography editor, and her ready, willing and able assistant, Lucile Scanlan.

Included in the hardworking and proud staff are Verna Baldwin, Clubs' editor, and Jean Doerscher, Organizations' editor. Both girls worked hard to bring about the launching of the school annual. Sports writeups were edited by Yakir Korey.

June Voerg and Ann Touliatos, the business co-managers, carried more than their share of the work with never-ending energy.

Who knows what work and hopes go into planning and starting the Annual better than Hildegard Cedergren, the tireless Fall business manager, and managing editor Lucile Burns?

Our unending thanks go to Mr. Robertson and the six panelers, Bob Nelson, Bob Larson, Jack Eisenmann, Kurt Teichert, Roy Fagerman, and Gordon Van Dover, who worked hard and well to help make the Annual into something we can all be proud of.

Senn News

THAT scratching of pencils and clatter of typewriters which can be heard so distinctly towards the southern end of the west corridor of our vast school, is merely the Senn News Staff in action—beating deadlines, driving copy, keeping within government regulations, proofreading, dummyming, and handling runoffs. From the jumble of "What's another word for this?" "How do you spell that?" "Typist please!" emerge such columns as Sparks 'n' Spice, Vesuvius, The Bulldog, Long Ago—But Not So Far Away and From the Field.

At the big editor's desk during the fall semester things revolved about proficient Co-editors-in-chief Phyllis Bergquist and Virginia Archibald. Francis Cosmas, Shirley Diamond, and Marcell Soloman, capable assistant editors, did a grand job of helping them, while as Ellen Lonergan took charge of the galleys, Man-about-school Lee Stern was the sports editor, Elmer Benz the veteran Sennites in Service columnist, and Jerry Groner the cartoonist. Ace business managers Beverly Medow and Mildred Aidem worked with efficient Lois Segal, circulation manager, to keep the books straight. Miss Corcoran was of course always on hand to give advice; Miss Kunz to take the money.

The spring staff consisted of Joan Katz and Gloria Gasul as co-editors-in-chief, Yakir Korey as sports editor, Floralee Chark as feature editor, Ilene Lippman as news editor, and Joan Kaufman, Dorothy Miller and Dorothy Seratan as copy editors. June Voerg handled all money matters as business manager, and Anastasia Touliatos kept circulation up to par as circulation manager.

Big Homecoming and Bulldog issues, a Hallowe'en Humor edition printed on orange paper and a special green edition for the Freshies, and the graduation paper will be especially remembered as the work of this wonderful group. During the spring semester the new staff began things with a Patriotic number, followed by a super spring sports edition, after which came one dedicated to the boys and girls of the school. With the graduation issue in June another year of the recording of Senn High's history was completed by the Senn News.

Workers

THE chief characteristics of the workers are an awareness of what makes a "good theater" and an eternal curiosity. This curiosity led them to study this year: Chinese theater and masks, the artistic suspension of disbelief, how to make rows and rows of property books, and the design of Willow Ware china.

Neos, who are the new recruits, designed model stages, portraying a Shakespearean play as an introduction to actual stage work. When they will have learned Damos, they will be eligible for the stage crew. According to their various interests, Damos are formed into committees on publicity, settings, costumes, technical problems, etc.

The workers' main problem is that of constructing a background for a play which will provide the right atmosphere, yet it must never intrude upon the audi-ence's senses. To a large degree, Workers have achieved this in the first semester play, The Swan and in Once and For All, the spring play, both given at Loyola Theater. The Turtle Dove, Juliet and Romeo, and a real melodrama, The Dead Sister's Secret, were given at the Cordon Club. A pageant like program was also produced for the Christmas season. Helene Teichert, Joan Hinton, Bob Young, Electra Kakarakis and Charles Shepard were the spark plugs of the first semester. In the second semester, Connee Klossner, Enid Fisher, the two Marilyns, Miller and Missing, Bonnie Yaney, and Herb Zinn achieved distinction.

Perhaps the greatest requirement for Workers is a large dose of common sense. You can readily see why—Miss Doniat has it.

Players

EVEN though Players got off to rather a slow start in the Library while their regular room was being rejuvenated, they have come through with a homerun to make this year one of their most successful seasons. Though numerous difficulties of various kinds were encountered they put on two grand plays, in the fall, a melodrama downtown for the Cordon Club and the other The Swan at the Loyola Theater for the whole school. Both plays were a tremendous success and a real tribute to the director Miss Skillen, whose motto, "The show must go on," and whose untiring help and effort guided the group to do a bigger and better job.

This past season has been a lot of fun as every player will agree. The job of keeping up the standards of Players has been taken over by the new group, who are doing a really capable job practicing for two plays to be presented downtown, and the great school play of 1945.

All is not fun, however, for every Player is constantly reminded of the many former Players who are fighting for our country.

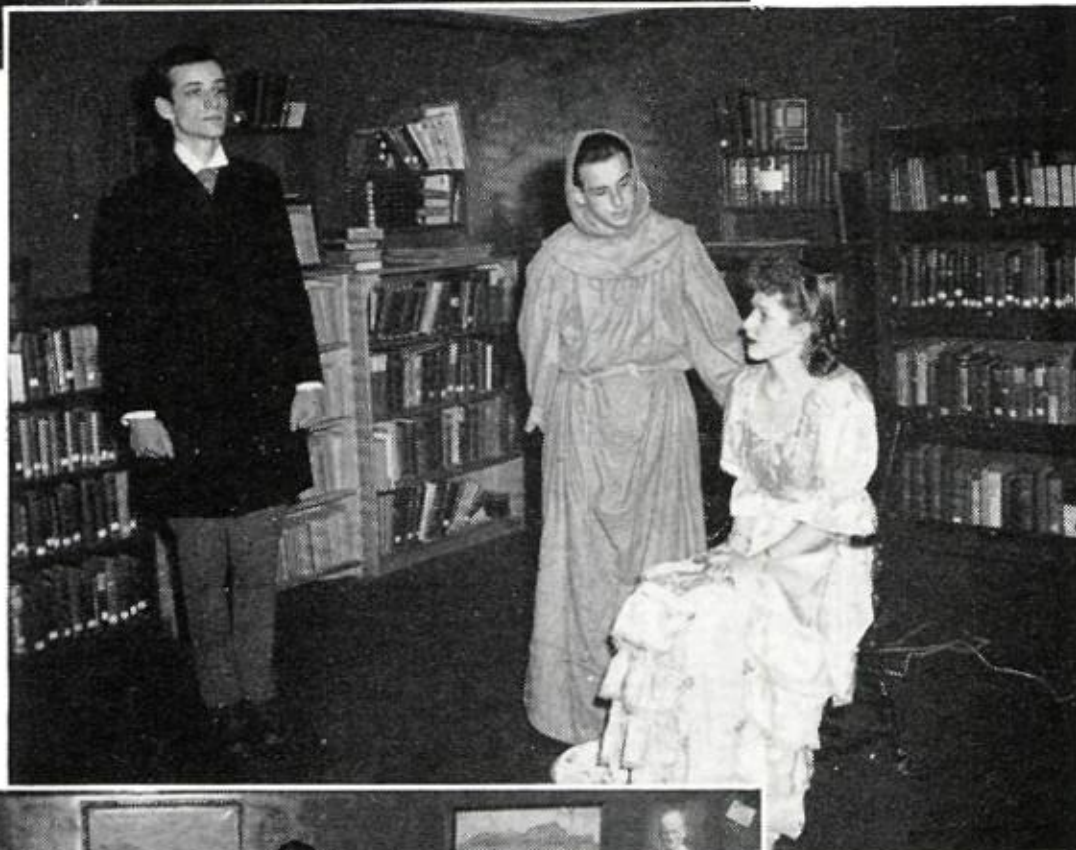

Rarely does a day pass without a Player, fifty per cent of whom are in uniform and stationed from England to the South Pacific, coming back to see D. T. This goes to show all the more the dear spot each holds in his heart of pleasant and wonderful memories of Players gone past.

This year one of the high spots was the Parents' Tea to which all the parents of the Players were invited. For the first time the new social room which was admired by everyone was used for the purpose. The Players themselves did the serving and furnished entertainment in the form of a short play and music.

The officers for the year were Ronnie Born and Jules Beskin, fall and spring presidents respectively; the vice-presidents Ralph Anderson and Bill Calm; secretaries Jeanne Bolan and Betty Kardish; other offices were held by Audrey Edson, and Annemarie Anrod, as Historian, and Priscilla Griswold and Jean Agnew, as Treasurer, and Ralph Anderson and Sheldon Mazor as special Thespis Officer.

SENN PLAYERS IN ACTION

Marshals

UNDER the fine supervision of Horace L. Howard the Senn Student Marshal organization again upheld its old tradition of keeping the corridors in good clean order.

To start out the fall semester Colonels Syd Bergh, Ed Lindstrom and Lt. Colonel Bob Nelson were placed in charge of the Marshals. One of the Highlights of this semester was the Luncheon given for all the Marshals in the student lunchroom.

In the Senn Student Marshal Court Colonel Lindstrom with Mr. Howard represented the Marshals while the students were represented by the judges they elected, Art Lueder 4A, Richard Lee 4B, and Bob Stronberg 3A.

Other officers graduating were Majors Lee Stern, Ted Kemp, Howard Vihon, and Don Jones; Captains Herb Haberstroh and Mort Horwitz.

Colonel George Assimos was found in command at the start of the spring semester with Eric Nyberg as Lt. Colonel and Jack Fehrmann as Major Executive. This group of officers were greatly aided by Bob Nelson former Lt. Colonel.

The Students were represented by Judges Hans Bauer 4A, Margie Queerman 4B, and Warren Wilkie 3A in the Student Court.

Graduating officers include Majors Whitney Binz, Frank Murphy, Jack Eisenmann, Bob Saffom, Kenny Prott, Kurt Teichert, and Gordon VanDover, Captain Don Murdock and Staff Lieutenant Eisenberg.

Senn R.O.T.C.

GIVEN impetus by the war, the Senn ROTC has become a training unit for men going into the services. The whole program has been revised with all emphasis placed on pre-induction military instruction. For this purpose 80 Enfield rifles have become part of the regular equipment of the Regiment. Besides the special manuals and training aids, restricted war department films were shown often to the cadets.

Entering his third year as instructor, newly promoted Sergeant James P. Iatropulos can look back with pride on the achievements of the last year. Sgt. Iatropulos has devoted the valuable experience gained as commanding officer of the Waller High School ROTC in 1928 toward the improvement of the Senn unit.

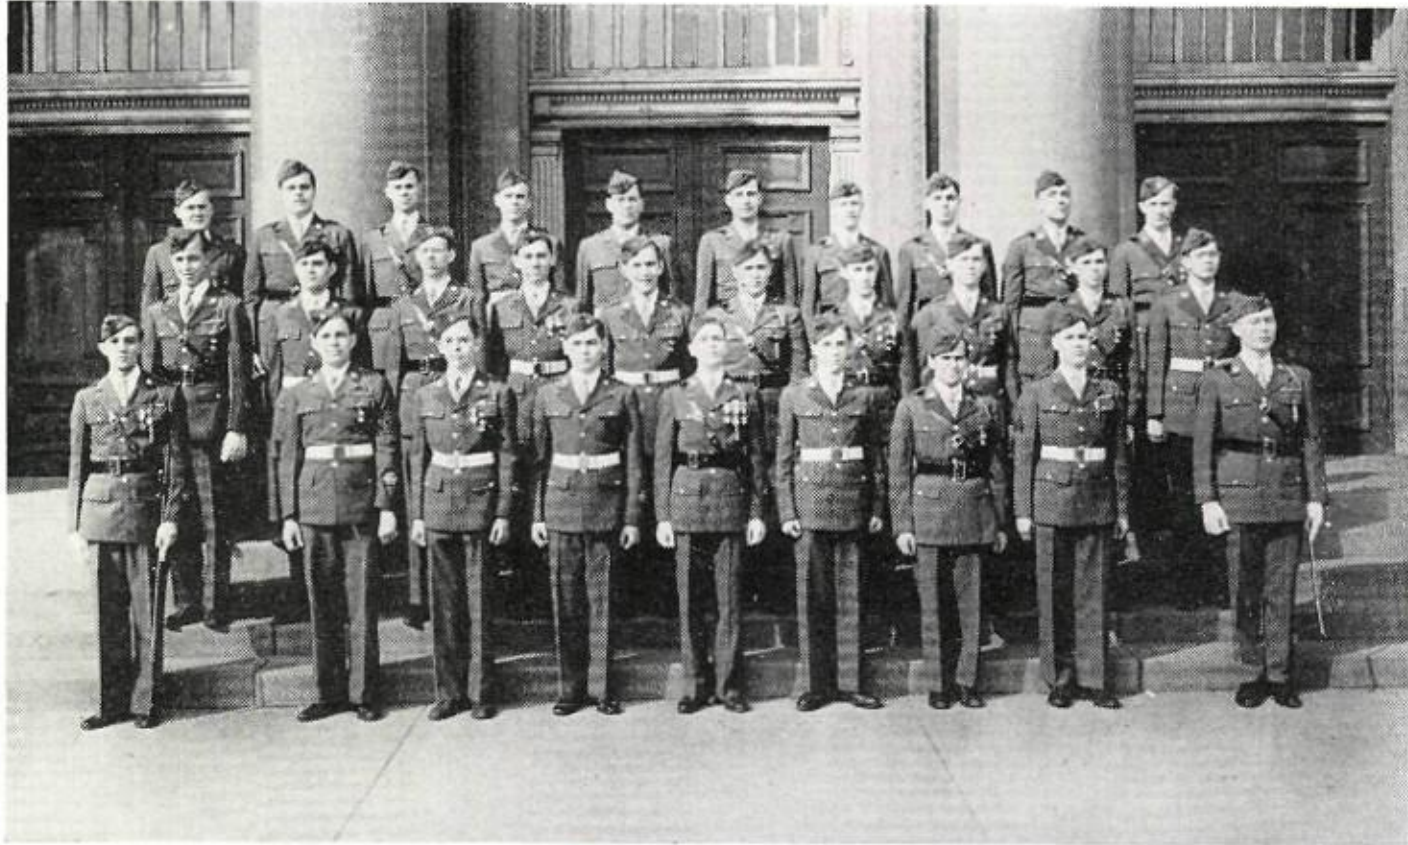

Senn's Rifle Team, itself in its initial year, ably represented the school in numerous matches. In the fall semester a new procedure was initiated. School letters were awarded to the six top-scoring cadets on the Senn Rifle Team. Those receiving letters last semester included: 1st Lt. Thomas Sugars, Sgt. Peter Jacobchuk, Staff Sgts. John Linn and John Taylor, and Cadets Robert Anderson and Marvin Iverson.

Others who received medals were Sgt. Thomas Novotny, and Cpls. Henry Barker and Herbert Reimann, neatest cadets medals; S/Sgt. Howard Ader, Band Efficiency; Capt. Jack Trindl, outstanding company commander; 1st Sgt. Henry Wish, outstanding 1st sergeant; Cpl. Raymond Gerlach, outstanding ROTC cadet; 1st Lt. Marshall Cherkas, outstanding Band cadet; and Lt. Don Gallay, the PTA award for ROTC proficiency and scholarship; and 1st Lt. Thomas Sugars, the D.A.R. medal for outstanding theoretical proficiency.

Picked Platoon

The American Legion Special Award for Officers Proficiency was awarded to Capt. Arnold Weil; the American Legion Auxiliary Medal was won by 2nd Lt. Don Gally; while the Legion Outstanding Company Award went to Capt. Robert Geudtner.

was ably assisted by Majors Richard Haas, Robert Borgstrom, John Leengran, and William Russo.

Company A

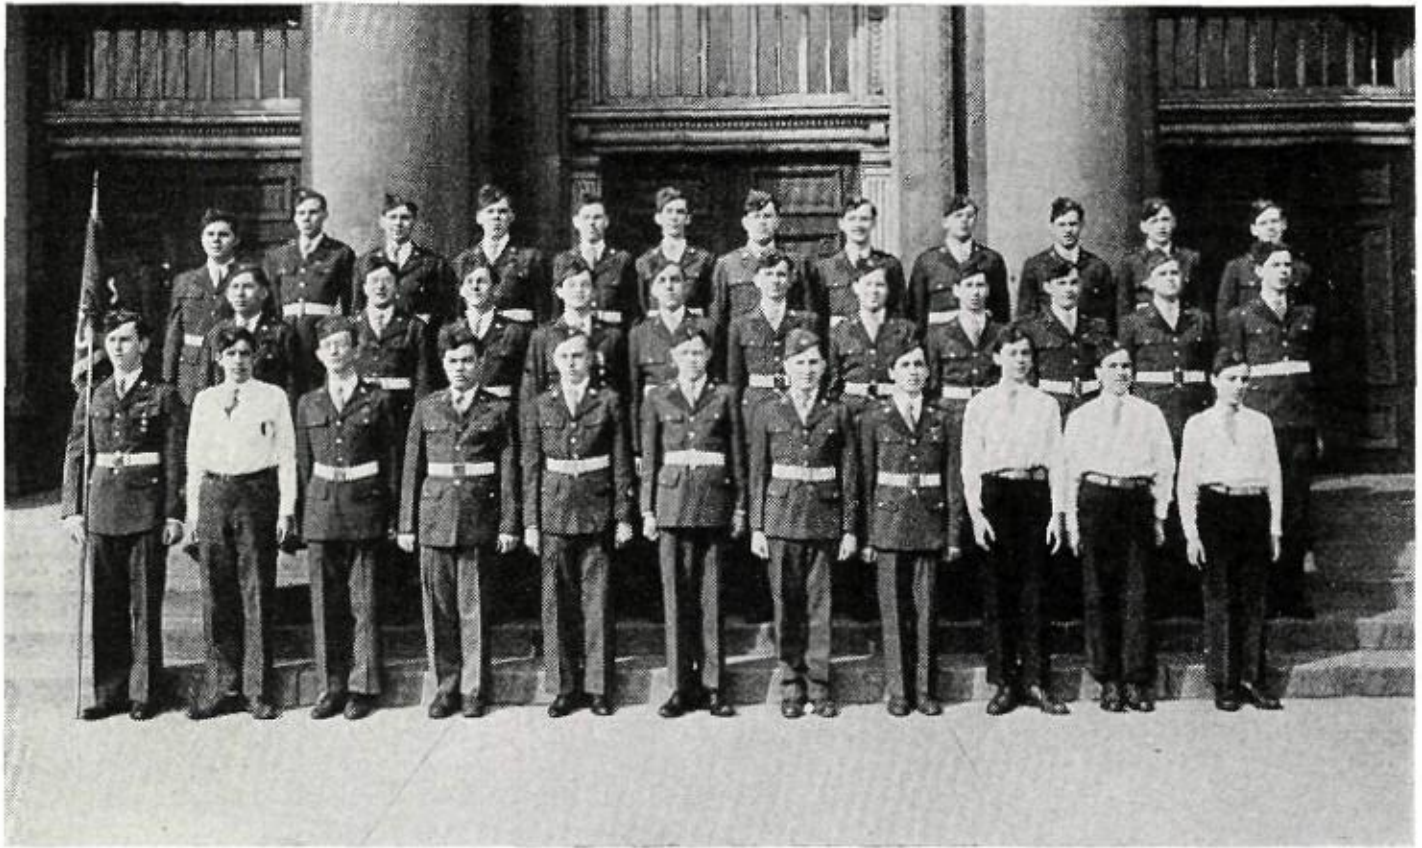

One of the major branches of the Senn ROTC is the regimental staff. Though it constitutes the backbone of the unit it very seldom receives credit for the work it does. In the staff for the spring semester were: 2nd Lt. Robert Shaw, Range Officer; 2nd Lt. James Nelson, Supply Officer; Master Sergeant Robert Sidenius, regimental clerk; and S/Sgt. Robert Vihon, clerk.

Another branch of the ROTC is the Color Guard. In the fall semester, under the command of 2nd Lt. Don Olsen, the Color Guard performed for the football games and for almost every assembly. When the spring semester came around, 2nd Lt. William Erickson took over the job. They could be seen almost any Wednesday morning participating in the reviews. On the Color Guard were: S/Sgts. Karl Grabermann and Sidney Kratman; and Corporals Leslie Keith, Leon Horvitz and Paul Jones.

This semester, again collecting for the Red Cross, the Senn ROTC contributed over $2000.00 besides the contributions of the cadets in their various home-rooms.

In May came the long waited for and thoroughly prepared for Annual Federal Inspection of the Regiment. For the 5th consecutive year Senn earned the top rating of Honor School. Always endeavoring to bring honor improvement to the school the ROTC remains a major factor in school life.

Senn ROTC Band

Band

TWO performances, sell-outs, the best show ever presented here. Senn will always remember the Minstrel Show and Band Concert, sponsored by the band, aided by the mixed chorus in November. Then came the Spring Concert with soloists Howie Ader, saxophonist; Sally Brosmand and Lillian Phillips, pianists.

In Captain Ostergren is found the real story of this year's success. Besides being a wonderful band instructor, he is a hard working showman.

Student commanders of the band were Cadet Major William Russo, and Cadet Captain Howard Ader in the fall and spring semesters respectively. They presided over inspection held to fit band members for the Federal ROTC Inspection. The non-coms are very important to keep order in the various sections. Richard Astrahan was First Sergeant.

At all football games, pep and Green and White assemblies the band was found boosting school spirit. In preparation for their concerts and the City Band Contest band members rehearsed 8th and 9th periods, even after school several nights a week.

In the City Solo Contest, Senn had fine representation. Howie Ader received the only S rating given, in the saxophone contest. Two clarinetists, Yale Allen and Pete Matz, took away E's, while Hylie Ward, freshman trumpeter, was graded G. Later Yale Allen, Louis Ellenhorn, Pete Matz, and Bob Stacey entered the Clarinet ensemble contest, receiving a rating of E.

One step below the Concert Band is the Military Band, under the direction of the commanders of the ROTC Band, assisted in concerts and other activities. These players and those of the Junior and Beginners' Bands are very ambitious students, who strive for placement in the Concert Band.

The Senn Swing Band is made up of a few Concert Band members. Recently it has been placed under the directorship of Captain Ostergren; Louis Ellenhorn is conductor, while Irwin Tunch is business manager.

Many service men former band members visit 425 to tell the students what their band training meant.

The Senn Band Parents Association stands behind the band in all activities. Two parties were sponsored by this organization, one to raise for instruments, the other to honor the band members, at which time medals and awards were given to eligible boys and girls.

More military discipline—that was the goal of the members of the SGMC. The corps, composed of girls from the Concert Band and Baton Twirlers, held inspections every Thursday morning in the ROTC Room, which were as rigid as those of the ROTC itself. There were stiff competitions among the girls for merits and the coveted earning of awards.

Football games found the twirlers on the field and the other girls with the band—playing and cheering the team to victory.

The corps is not only a school activity but functions as an extra-curricular club as well. Meetings are held at the homes of the various members every other Monday evening where activities and socials are planned.

The highlights of the year for the corps were the two luncheons given at the close of each semester honoring the two sponsors, Captain Ostergren and Sergeant Iatropulos. This year found many of the members graduating, but the new members will keep the high standards.

Girls' Chorus

SENN Girls' Chorus, numbering over forty selected soprano and alto singers, meet daily for rehearsal in room 340 under the direction of their leader, Miss Cameron.

This ensemble group of singers are very ambitious to accomplish a higher standard of performance each semester they are in the choir.

Their repertoire of three and four-part songs of a patriotic and classical variety have entertained on several occasions Senn school assemblies, Faculty teas, and P.T.A. groups.

The chorus was pleased to accept the invitation to sing an evening's program of songs at Jamieson Grammar School on the occasion of Father's Night Concert sponsored by the P.T.A.

The semester's work gave special preparation for the group of songs to be sung at the Annual Spring Festival on the evening of June the eighth in Senn Hall Assembly. The request number, Schubert's Ave Maria, was sung in Latin, and brought forth warm applause from the large audience present.

The following members of the choir take care of many details and responsibilities throughout the year organized as follows: President, Joan Kiester; Vice-President, Mary Spiros; Treasurer, Betty Lou Jones; Secretary, Carol Zander; Librarian, Kathryn Fowlie. Accompanists: Dolores Harris, and new to the choir—Sonia Gamburg, whose appearance as piano soloist with the Chicago Symphony in Orchestra Hall, and also soloist with the Chicago Women's Symphony Orchestra in Grant Park, enhances the interest and prestige for the Girls' Chorus programs of choral, solo, and piano selections.

Mixed Chorus

THE performances of the Mixed Chorus this year have been many, and very well executed under the able direction of Mrs. Keats.

Probably the most important episode in the career of the chorus this year is their performance in the Minstrel Show, which was a huge success throughout the whole school.

At Christmas time, the chorus had the honor of being invited to entertain the children of the Parental School, the program of which, consisted of songs, dances and Christmas carols by the group. The chorus also participated in the inspiring Christmas assembly and carolled through the halls.

Some of the more talented members of the chorus volunteered their services in the way of entertainment at two Servicemen's Centers in January. They did very well, and the pleased officials of one of the centers invited them to have refreshments in the canteen.

Shamrock Shag, a dance for the chorus members and their dates, proved a big success, and fun was had by all. It was held in the Girl's gym and the swing band provided the music.

It was suggested and unanimously voted upon that the chorus present their contribution to the Red Cross, which was $100.00.

The Farmer's Frolic was presented by the group at the four assemblies in April. This idea was something entirely new and different, and the audience received it very well.

In May the group made recordings for the Citizens of Tomorrow broadcast, which was quite a thrill for them. Also, in May, the chorus was on the program of the P.T.A. meeting.

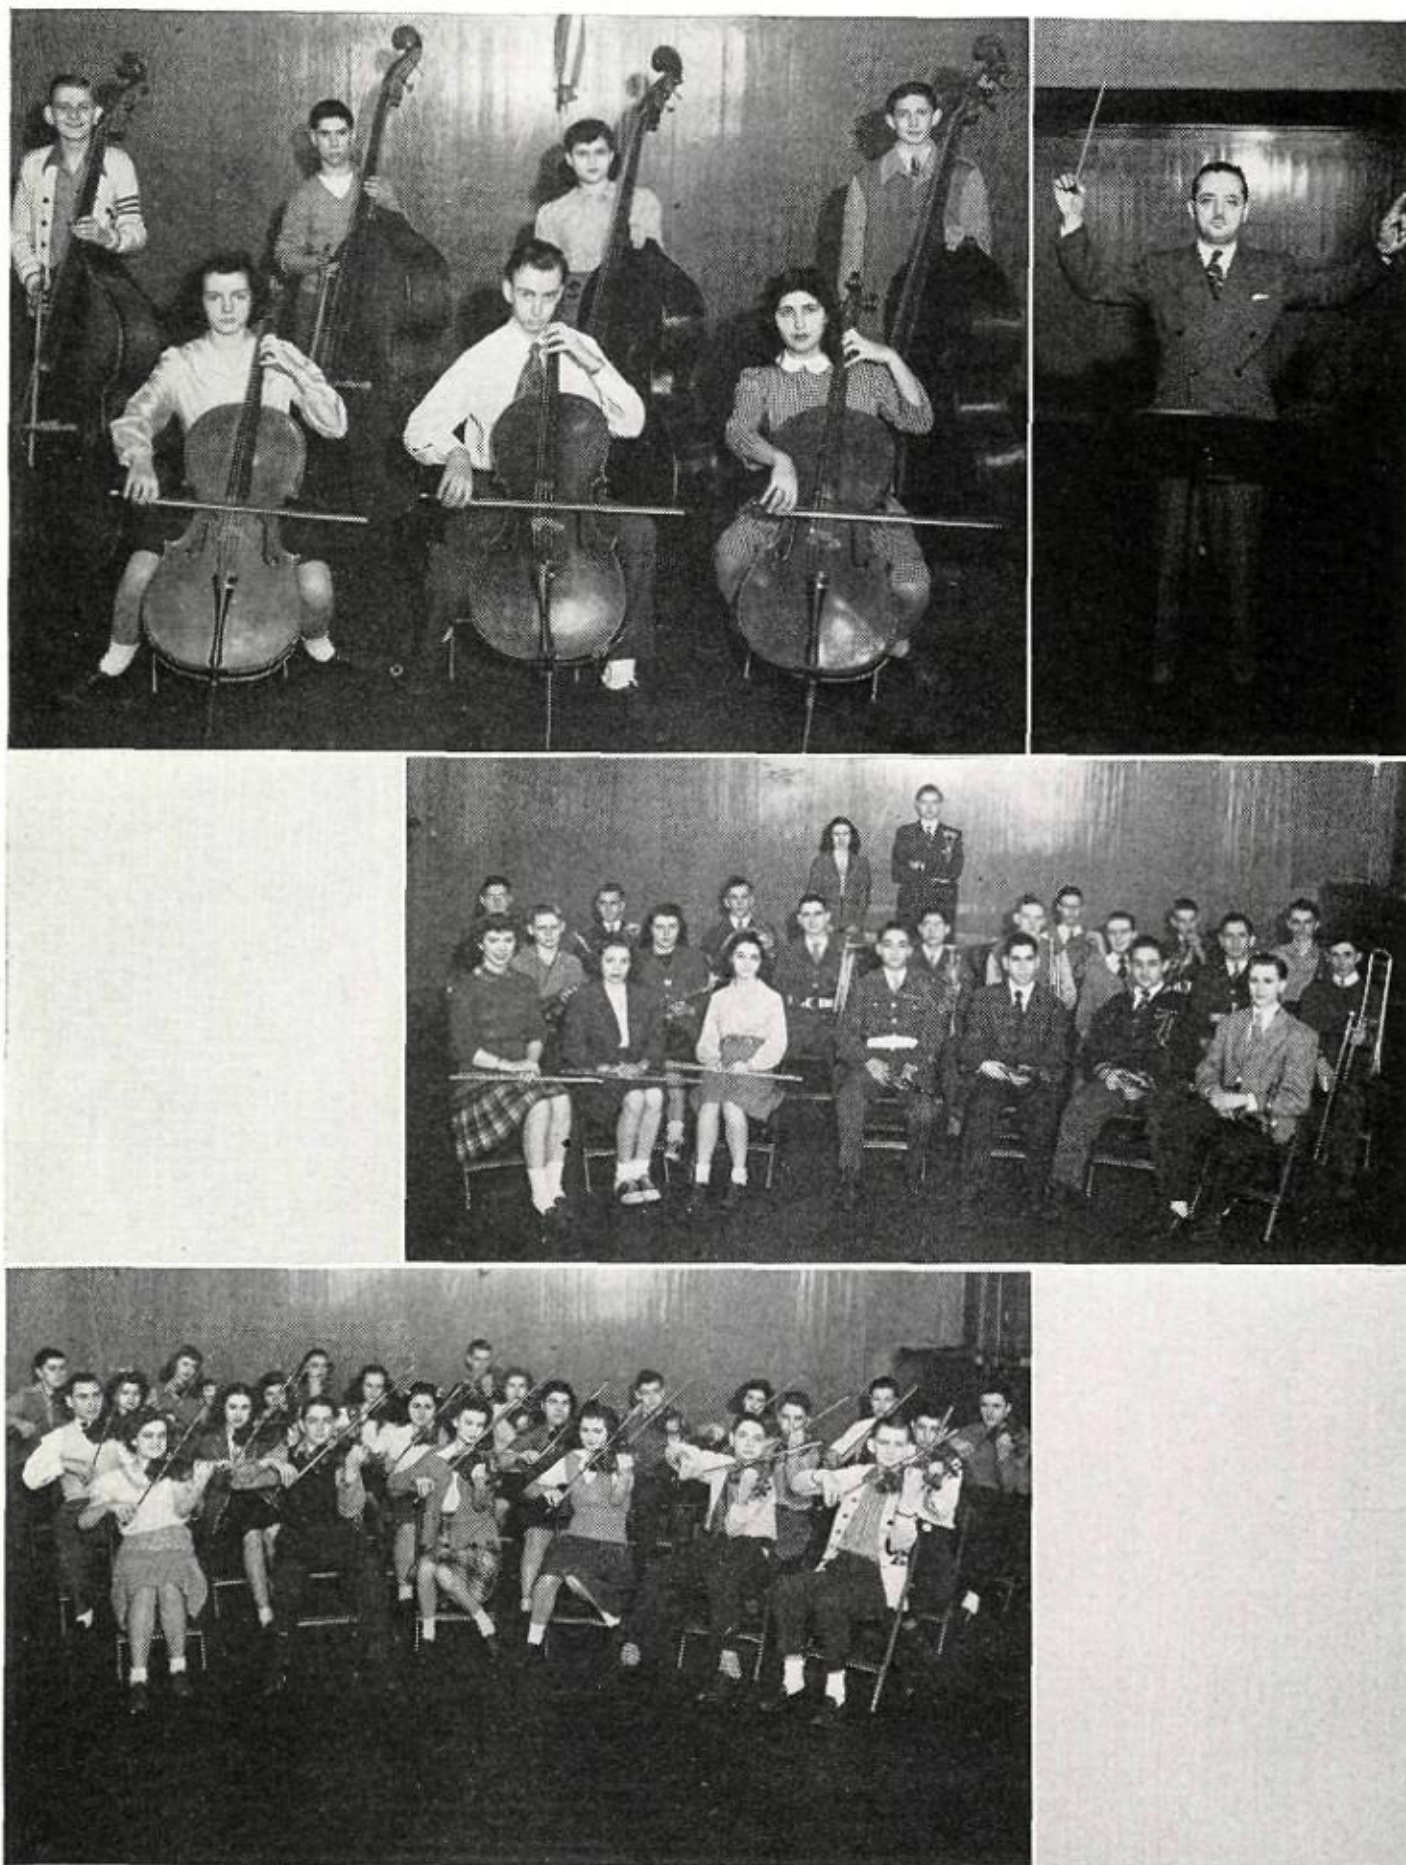

An added feature beside the usual rehearsals is a program once a month. The members participate in this program, and the students look forward to the days when they will be entertained by their fellow singers.

The chorus has been keeping in touch with its former members who have entered the armed forces since Mrs. Keats is director, which is now two years. Approximately once a month, sheets of foolscap paper are passed around, and each of the students writes a short note to the boys. They are really very diligent about answering the letters, which makes the group feel proud to know that they have made the chorus something that is not forgotten by absent members.

In the latter part of June, a picnic put a close to the numerous and successful "great moments" of the group.

The officers for the Fall Semester of 1944 were: John Leengren, president; Elmer Linden, vice-president; Helen Forde, secretary; and Bob Price, treasurer. In charge of robes were Treava Marti and Frank Grillaert, with librarians Beverly Raney and Bill Record. For the Spring Semester of 1945, Beverly Raney was president; Alrik Jacobson, vice-president; Jean Sonnenschein, secretary; and Frank Grillaert, treasurer. Alice Marie Meyer and Clarence Baldwin were in charge of robes, and June Anglin and Tom Cartalano were librarians.

The chorus owes a deep debt of thanks to their faithful accompanist, Sally Brosman. With her everlasting patience and helpful pitches at the correct time, the success of the chorus has greatly advanced.

SENN ORCHESTRA

Orchestra

ONE of the outstanding organizations of Senn is the orchestra, which has been rated in competitions as one of the best in the city. This organization is very active in all musical events sponsored by Senn, the last one being the concert held on January 17 and 19 at the modern and beautiful Loyola Theater. The audience enjoyed hearing such selections as the "Overture to Norma," Bellini; "One Morning in May," Carmichael; "Song of the Flame," Gershwin; "Meadowlands," Knipper; and "Danse Boheme" from "Carmen," Bizet. This concert was a smashing success, and differed from others given by the Senn Orchestra as it was presented outside the school, and in cooperation with the dramatic department, which gave a play on the same evenings. Other occasions at which the orchestra is present are the Spring Festivals and graduations, where the orchestra plays the processional and recessional marches. Assemblies are given at various times during the semester, and the orchestra also supplies the music at some of the P.T.A. events.

In addition to the semi-annual concerts and graduation accompaniment, this organization also participates in the City Competition for High School Orchestras, which is held each spring. For the 1944 contest, presented at Harrison Technical High School, the orchestra played, Excerpts from "Rosamunde" by Schubert and the Procession of the Sardar from "Rosamunde" by Ippolitow-Ivanow. As a result of these annual contests, the orchestra has retained a Superior Rating for three consecutive years.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Gomborg, there are rehearsals in school each day during the first and second periods, and besides these, after school rehearsals are held each Friday for violins, Tuesday for cellos and string basses, and Thursday for violas. Extra practice for the entire orchestra is arranged when necessary, however, this only occurs shortly before a concert. Polly Werner has the position of concert master, while the checking of music and instruments is handled by the librarian, Dolores Croson. Sally Brosman, who is known for her excellent piano accompaniments and solos, acts as Attendance Secretary.

This musical group has a rapidly growing enrollment, which now stands above 60, among which the members are as follows: First violins: Polly Werner, Martin Weininger, Marvin Shapiro, Dolores Croson, Evelyn Frazin, Natalie Rosenfeld, Theresia Brandstatter, Carla Cobb, and Bernard Lieberfarb. Second violins: Rudolph Ohrning, Franklin Sher, Bert Zimmers, Rudolph Heiners, Fred Gross, Melvin Greenspahn, Marilyn Greenman, Robert Fink, Harold Feldman. Violas: Carolyn Erickson, Betty Roeschlein, Toby Cohen, George Tillquist, Gabrielle Koehler, Nancy Brougham, and Marilyn Rossie. Cellos: Herbert Bloom, Nancy Bild, Lucretia Lide, and Jerry Braude. Basses: Howard Markin, Sam Berger, Dolores Goldsmith, Olga Benson, and Marilyn Castle. Flutes: Sally Brosman, Gloria Brown, and Toby Baker. Oboe: Norman Perman. Clarinets: Louis Ellenhorn, Yale Allen, and Murray Allen. Saxophones: Bette Campbell, and Don Christensen. Bass Clarinet: Robert Stacy. Horns: Ralph Bohn, Jim Dunkley, Jim Vinson, Loring Mandel and Ira Lichton. Trumpets: Howard Katz, Ralph Stober, Arnold Salcedo, Bill Melton, Lloyd Dobbins. Trombones: Kenneth Schonlau, and Stuart Albert. Percussion: William Erickson, and Robert Forslund.

For those students anxious to learn to play a string instrument, the Junior Orchestra offers unlimited opportunities. These Sennites, under the direction of Mr. Gomborg, meet daily in room 425 the 6th period and learn to play such instruments as violin, viola, cello, and string bass.

THE purpose of the Red Cross Club is to direct Junior Red Cross Activities at Senn. During the club meetings, the members knit squares which are sewed into afghans for use in military hospitals.

In addition, the club sponsored several drives in the past year. Last semester the club asked the student body for old playing cards, which the Red Cross needed to give to wounded service men on hospital ships and trains and in convalescent centers. The response to this request was overwhelming. They asked for five hundred decks and received fifteen hundred.

Then at Christmas time the club supervised the packing of gift boxes for children in the newly-liberated lands overseas. These boxes were filled with toys and practical gifts to delight a child's heart. Senn furnished twenty of these packages. Recently the Red Cross asked Senn to fill fifty more boxes with school supplies.

The most important project of the year is the participation in the Red Cross War Fund Drive. In 1942 the Senn student body bought and equipped a Blood Donor truck which has been doing full-time service ever since. This year the Red Cross Drive, with the assistance of the Green and White Club, raised over three thousand dollars.

The Red Cross Club through its various activities seeks to interest the students in the humanitarian efforts of the American Red Cross. Miss Cain sponsors this worthy group of Sennites.

Senn Parent-Teacher Association

ALTHOUGH working under great handicaps, due to the world conflict, the P-TA has had a very inspiring and worth while year.

Their theme, Youth Serves — We Serve Youth, was designed to meet the needs of not only the students but the community as well. The efforts of the organization were given to presenting to the school a fund for extra equipment needed, two successful tag days, conducted by Miss Mary Cavanagh, Student service chairman at Senn, and having a sum of money voted on as part payment on our Athletic Field opposite the school.

Excellent work was done by Mrs. Pottage assisted by Mrs. Karth who not only retained, but far surpassed the last year's records with a total membership of 1,231 with a 100% teacher enrollment.

Groups and students have benefited greatly by the unselfish efforts which the P-TA has constantly put forth on their behalf and to the leadership of their president, Mrs. Losch, we owe many thanks.

Scientific genius fully displayed itself in the weekly meetings of the Selenium Nitrides or, as it is more commonly known, the Chemistry Club. This group set out to promote a greater interest and knowledge in the field of chemistry. This was accomplished by individual and group experiment outside of the regular class work, talks by guest lecturers and trips to places of scientific interest.

One of the large aims of the club was to keep its members posted on current developments in the chemical field and, if possible, to aid in the war effort by having a repetition of the fat collection which was such a success last year.

With Bruce Stephens as president of the Fall semester, the club accomplished interesting experiments of oxidation mirroring glass and the manufacture of sulfuric acid.

International Relations Club

The purpose of the International Relations Club is to arouse an interest in the growth and development of modern social and historical trends, and discussion of the current international issues.

This year the I.R. has centered its attentions on the peace proposals and has discussed Yalta, Mexican and San Francisco conferences.

The club made an interesting trip to the Northwest Settlement, the Polish museum, and Chinatown. They were guests of Roosevelt High School in a debate on the lowering of the draft age. Several of the club's members were chosen to appear on radio programs for CBS and other networks.

During the fall semester the first section had Lenny More as President of the first section and Jack Lundl of the second.

Senn High School in the past has seen the rise and fall of many fine organizations featuring a variety of subjects from cameras to chemistry. But never, it seemed, did the students become interested enough in their own school to strive to improve it. Suddenly among the Sennites there arose a small group of fellows, all with the same idea. They felt that the school could stand a great deal of improvement; so with this main purpose in mind the boys organized under the sponsorship of the person of their choice, Miss Doniat. Thus the Green and White was born.

Disregarding race and creed, their members were taken from the student leaders at Senn. They were ready to accomplish deeds that had not been thought of even by the most progressive Sennites.

This year they have tried to carry on the fine traditions begun last year, which included Lunch hour social periods, anti-gambling, tolerance, and various assemblies, the like of which Senn never before knew, under the leadership during the Fall Semester of Dick Mudge, president; Jack Austin, vice president; Eric Nyberg, secretary; and Lee Stern, treasurer.

Art Guild

If you should happen to pick up a copy of Who's Who, in the near future and find the name and history of several members of this noted group, the Art Guild, listed there, don't be surprised for these people do things! They are famous for their accomplishments. Many of these individuals have won prizes in various contests held throughout the city. All have exhibited work at Senn and elsewhere.

In the near future the Guild plans to visit a number of places in the city especially interesting to artists.

One outstanding project of this group is the organization of a morgue or clipping file for the use of Art students. This is a gigantic undertaking that requires the ever observant eye and keen mind of talented persons. But in many ways, it will help hopeful young artists when they knock on the portals of the Art Guild of Senn in the future.

The Art Guild has to date presented the Social Room with a beautiful water color seascape suitably framed.

A new club was organized in February of 1945 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Thomas. Its aims were to further the enjoyment of reading and to better acquaint its members with worthy books and authors. Any student from 3A up to graduating seniors can qualify for membership.

At the weekly, meetings current books were discussed and summaries of them given. This resulted in the exchange of opinions and viewpoints; this was very stimulating. Another activity was the study of new words found in reading with the aim of bettering vocabularies.

Once a month professional book critics came to the meetings and reviewed popular books. This gave the membership an inside track on how book reviewing is done and a knowledge of the methods of literary analysis. Plays were dramatized by the members on several occasions. A number of professional plays were seen and tours of cultural institutions were made.

The programs were arranged by Helen Browne, program chairman. Mary Agnes Elson was the reviewer for the Browsers.

Camera Club

Camera Club accomplishments have been many this year in spite of the handicaps such as the shortage of film and other materials due to the war.

The main purpose of the Club is to teach the members the proper way to take pictures, to develop, print and mount them, also different phases of photography such as portrait work.

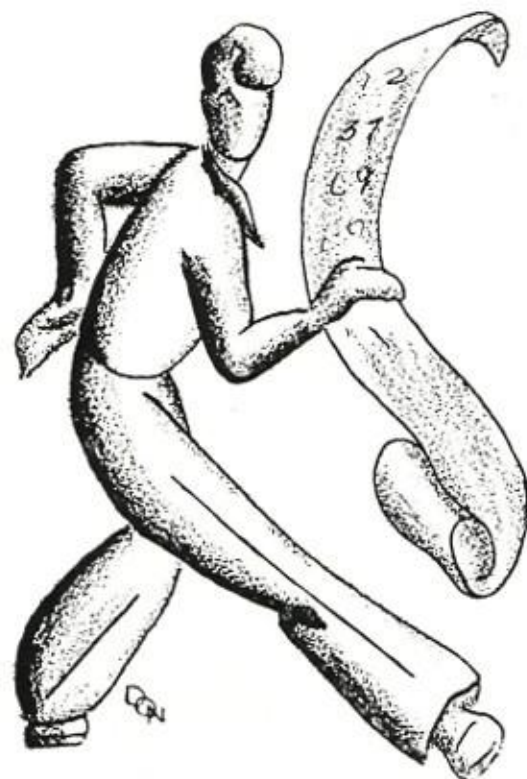

Mr. Moore, the Club's Adviser, very kindly assisted the officers in planning meetings which would be of interest to the members.

As the Club wanted every member to participate actively, each one was invited to give a talk on the special type of photography in which he was interested. The Club purchased a Hand Book which all members were welcome to use and Mr. Moore kept the dark room facilities open for any one interested in this field.

A school wide contest held early in the year proved that the members of the Camera Club had profited by what they had learned as the results of their efforts to take successful pictures proved highly satisfactory to all.

This year the Careers Club has a membership of 128, consisting of Juniors and Seniors. The purpose of this club is to acquaint the members with various occupations. Vocational guidance was given by several speakers who addressed the members on radio, drama, modeling, dress design, journalism, science, medicine, engineering, law, many other careers.

Moving pictures are also presented on plastic art, contemporary artists, radio and television, automobile service and drafting.

It is the hope of the club that the presentation of these varied occupations will help the members decide what they are best suited for and what they have a natural preference for. The Junior members have their own officers. Edward Cohen, president; Edith Finkelstein, vice president; Carol Wertheimer, secretary; Charlotte Schneiden, treasurer.

The selection of the movies is taken care of by the Senior Movie Secretary, Gertrude Sharpe.

German Club

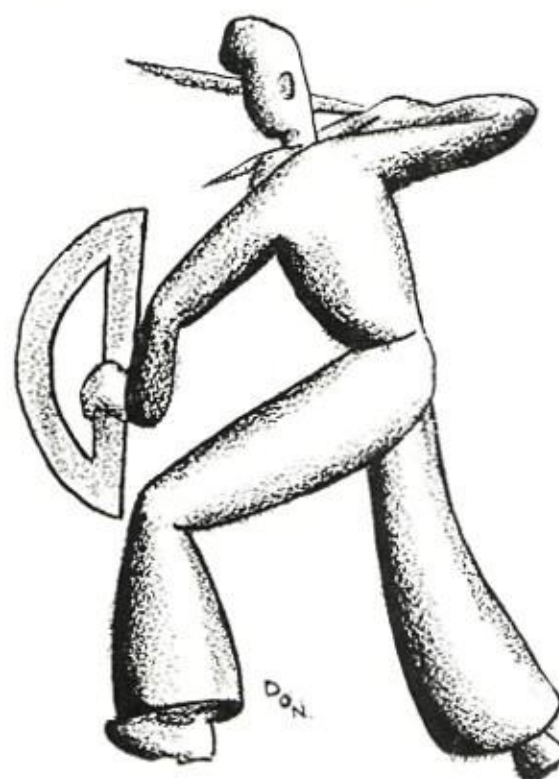

This is one of Senn's newest clubs. The German Club has increased the appreciation of the German language and has given the members a further knowledge of Germany itself. Besides its German functions does much in a way to bring about a more sound friendship between students.

The club meets in the social room 4th and 7th periods, about every three weeks. Besides the regular business the club sings German songs, and has interesting talks on various parts of Germany.

In the past all meetings have had an attendance of over fifty people. This coming semester, the club is expected to enlarge itself greatly. In all, the German Club is growing and soon it will be one of Senn's best.

In October, 1939, Miss Cavanagh, the Sponsor, with Mr. Davidson's approval and hearty support, founded the Hostess Club. Two girls from each senior division room were chosen to become members of the club. There are always two hostesses, with their green and gold badges, on duty in Room 137, ready to aid Mr. Davidson, the faculty, and the student body. The hostesses meet visitors and parents and escort them through the building. Besides the duties in Room 137, the Hostesses profit by lectures given by famous Chicago people during their meetings. Dr. Carl Birch of Kings' Disease fame and Maureen Daly of the Chicago Tribune provided two excellent talks. Tours to places of interest reward the girls for their services and also acquaint them with the many opportunities and privileges which Chicago has to offer.

Pitman Club

The Pitman Club sponsored by Mrs. Barron of the commercial department meets every Wednesday morning at 8:00.

Last semester the club glided along under President Elaine Morey and Vice President Dorothy Solomon, with Florence Young and Betty Morrison keeping track of who's there and who's paid respectively.

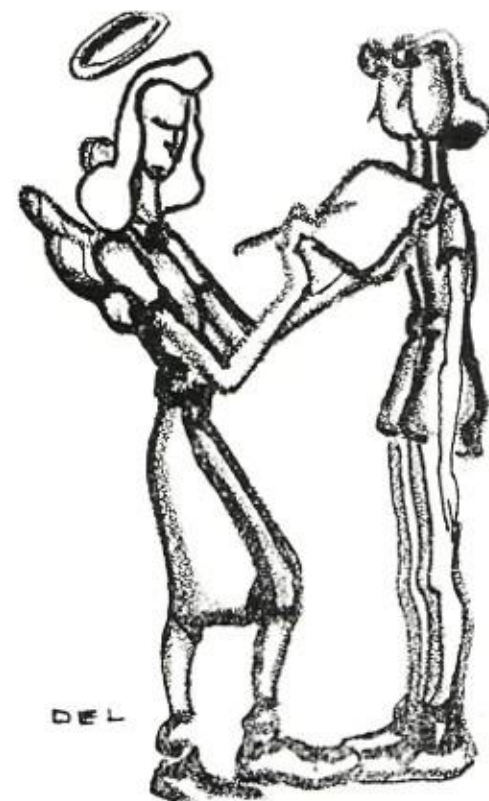

The program committee is to arrange the club's activities and consists of Beverly Siegal, Shirley Leon, Murial Stark and Shirley Weise who are doing their best to keep the club in tip-top shape.

Every week finds something different happening. There are transcription tests and typing tests for which awards are given by Mrs. Barron. Shorthand games are played with very original prizes from the ten cent store as awards.

The club has a very successful party in Room 137 semi-annually with refreshments being served. Two broadcasts were attended and enjoyed, along with field trips to Tribune Tower and Jones Commercial School.

A gathering to delight any boy or girl is the Scribblers Club under the sponsorship of Miss Kracke. Meeting seventh period, Monday through Friday, the club's activities include poetry, short story and essay writing. Constructive criticism is furnished by the students themselves.

Last semester the club had no officers because the pupils were preparing attitudes and subject matter to use this semester for contests.

The club is only three semesters old and began as a social group featuring music, dramatics, a forum, games, and choric speaking. However, it settled into creative writing, and today is called the Scribblers. It has a quill and inkwell pin for its symbol.

Requirements for entrance are simple: First, a pupil must be passing in all school subjects; secondly, he needs to have study in sophomore activity period this semester, which will change to junior activity period next semester; finally, he must write an original essay, or a short story, or a play, or a book review, or several poems in order to be admitted.

Social Room Counselors

Do your parties lack atmosphere? If so, Room 119 is the place for you. There you will find all the comforts of home along with the efficient help and social grace of the Counselors in charge. Regardless of the time, these Counselors are always on duty to advise, direct and plan your social affairs with you. In turn the girls expect cooperation and care in the use of the Social Room, so that this place will maintain its beauty and use far into the future.

The S. R. Club is very new, just recently organized under the direction of Miss Hanley. The girls have proved their worth. It is true that each one of these girls has been chosen for her social grace, intelligence and willingness to serve Senn. Sennites truly appreciate the fine work of this club. The girls themselves plan social events in the near future in the way of parties and entertainment for their own group.

The re-organization of Senn's enlarged Book Room was the task so recently completed by Mrs. Twomey and her competent staff. Old books were dug out of dusty corners, clearing away old worthless books or remains of, and the books were actually washed. It was changed from a book store room to a Text Book Library.

The care, replenishment, the ease of arrangement and distribution of the books and the weeding out of old respond to good management.

In equality to the tasks of the Book Room are the School Appropriations. From penholders and pencils to educational lumber, from postage stamps to Scotch tape, the Trust Officers order, check, distribute and charge to the school accounts the amounts expended in the various departments.

Nereids

Girls at Senn who are interested in swimming are urged to join the Nereid group. This club sponsors all aquatic events among girls.

In order to join the group, a girl must show her ability to swim one hundred yards, sixty of which must be the Australian crawl. She must also be able to execute a plain front dive.

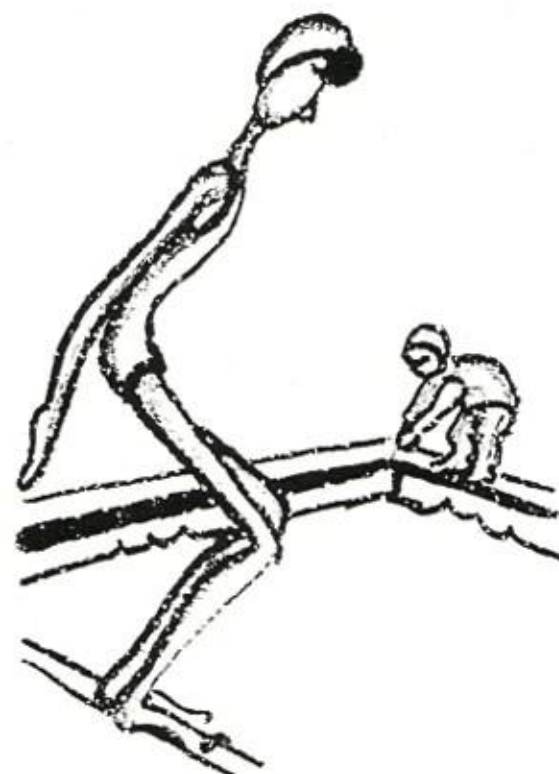

Meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month at eight o'clock in the morning in Room 222. The two swimming periods assigned to these girls are the ninth period on Monday and the fourth on Friday.

During the fall the club sponsored an Intramural Swimming Meet. In addition to the competitive events on the program, several girls presented water ballet numbers.

In the spring the Nereids were hostesses to thirty-six girl swimmers from neighboring schools. These girls were invited to Senn for a Play Day. While they were enjoying their activities in the pool, a similar number of girls were playing games in the gym. Later they joined for refreshments in the Social Room.

 Secretary Marilyn Glentzer
 Treasurer Mimi Zadigian
 Adviser Miss Greiner

Senn Girls' Athletic Association is the largest all-girl group in the school. This organization with Miss Greiner as its adviser sponsors many activities during the semester. An important purpose is to promote good sportsmanship among the girls.

During the Fall term, the S.G.A.A. held among other things a Roller Skating Party at the Arcadia and a Harvest Party in the girls' gym after school. School games are held on Tuesday and Thursday in the girls' gym. Soccerball was played the first ten weeks and basketball during the remaining ten weeks.

This spring, besides the officers, a board of twelve was chosen by the officers to help plan the various activities held during the semester. A second Skating Party was given in March.

The S.G.A.A. annually holds a picnic in June at which awards for various activities are made to the girls who earned the required number of points. After the girl wins her letter she may go on to win chevrons. Numerals are given for perfect attendance at the after school games.

Stagg Tournament

COACH HARRY LEIGHTON'S Senn basketball squad captured the 25th Chicago University Holiday Tournament by defeating Gage Park 37-33 in the championship contest on New Year's Day. The victory climaxed a five game tourney winning streak, which also included wins over Bowen, Crane Tech, the Public League titleholders from South Shore, and undefeated Wells.

The U. of C. tournament entry from Senn consisted of twelve members from the Senior Squad, and three from the Junior quintet. Possessors of an unimpressive five win-three loss record during the practice season, the Bulldogs were conceded little chance in pre-meet calculations. But the Ridge Avenue Brigade, by playing spectacular defensive ball which netted their opponents an average of only 32 points per game while they were garnering a 39 point offensive average, battled their way to a well deserved championship.

The answer to the title lies in the fact that the Bulldogs possessed five potent scorers and adequate reserves. Buzz Murphy, Frank Walters, and Captain Bob David paced the scoring attack, while 6' 6½" center, Jack Wulf, and guard Roy Baskin, sparkled on defense. Freshman Whitey Pearson, playing in a reserve role, garnered seven points in the championship encounter with Gage Park, while center-guard Larry Krulewitch, forward Jim Zwack, and guard Hans Bauer, functioned efficiently in substitute roles.

Basketball

AFTER capturing the Stagg Tournament Title, Coach Harry Leighton's Senior cagers opened up a season long to be remembered at Senn. With forwards Buzz Murphy and Bob David, center Jack Wulf, and guards Bucky Walters and Roy Baskin, each doing his part, Senn swept through 10 consecutive victories to win their first North Section title.

Beautiful teamwork highlighted the season openers as the Bulldogs crushed Waller, Amundsen, and Lane, the powerhouses of the North Section. As the year wore on it looked as if Senn was title bound and only Von Steuben stood in the way. But the Bulldogs cleared that hurdle by the tune of 35-33 as Walters starred.

In the play-offs the Bulldogs drew Marshall, holder of fourth place in the West bracket. It was not till the last few seconds that Senn won as Murphy's free throw put the game on ice. The final score stood 38-37.

The old feud between Senn and Lane was renewed in the quarter-finals. Previously whipped in sectional competition, the Indians proved tougher this time. Not enough credit can be given to Roy Baskin for his terrific work on defense. Wulf and Walters again sparked the victory.

With the semi-finals coming around, Senn found itself paired with the Central Section champs, Lindblom. Capt. Bob David spearheaded a first half attack which in the long run proved the decisive factor.

While Jack Wulf paced the well-balanced scoring machine, Senn completely outplayed the Panthers from Von Steuben to take the crown, which proved to be the first time that the Bulldogs won a major championship. The score of 32-20 was recorded for the final game.

Credit must again be handed to Captain David for his calm leadership and fine teamplay. Buzz Murphy did an excellent job on defense, leading the team in scoring. The all around defensive and offensive work of Jack Wulf proved to be one of the deciding factors during the long season. The guards, Bucky Walters and Roy Baskin, turned in a super defense job at all times. Alternates Jimmy Zwack, Hans Bauer, and Larry Krulewitch turned in creditable performances and showed themselves vital cogs in Senn's well-oiled championship machine.

Although the win column of Coach Gene Friker's Junior cagers is far from impressive, they showed great spirit when the chips were down.

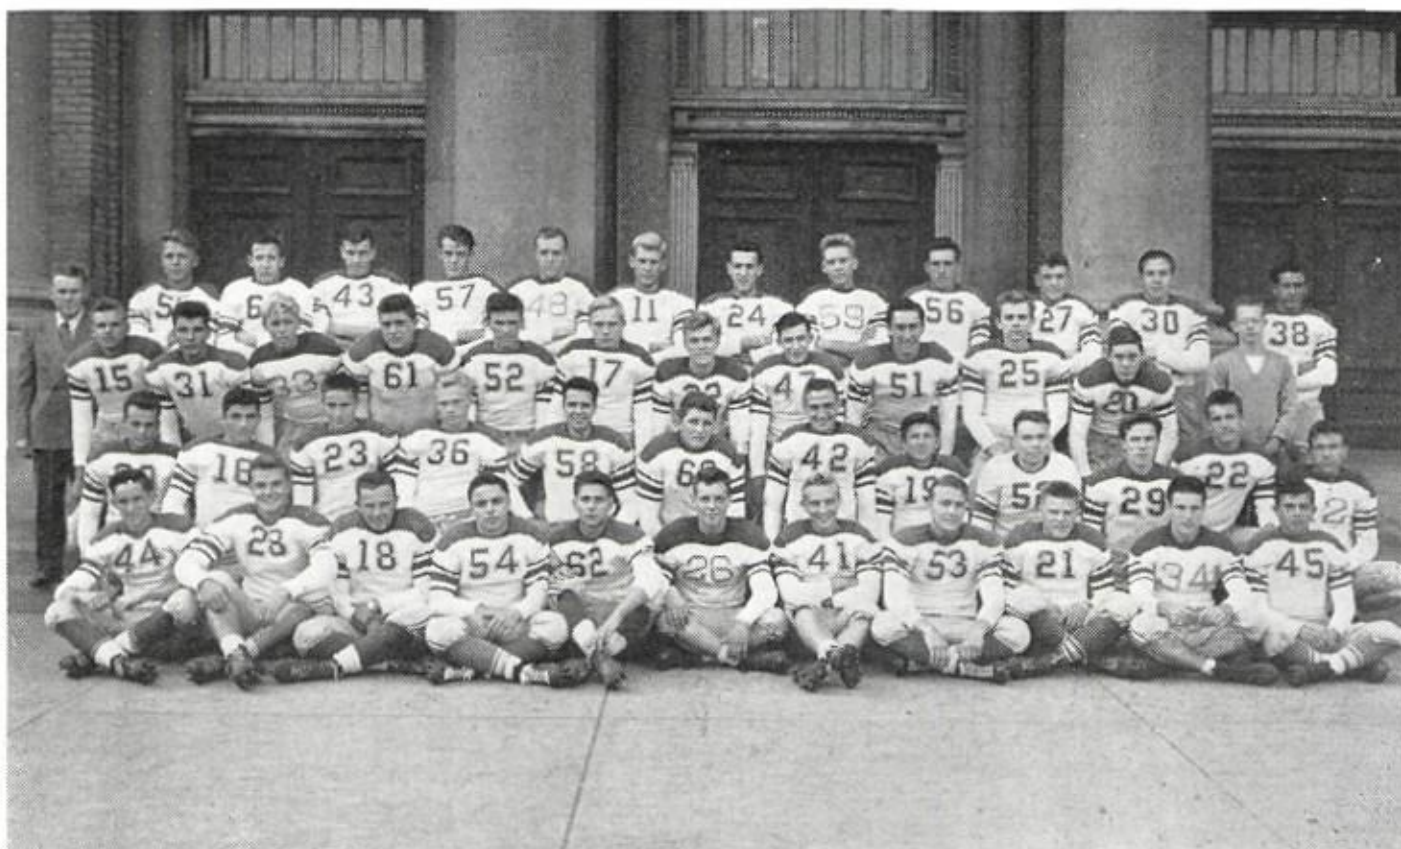

After dropping the opener to Lake View, the Juniors, sparked by forward Whitney Pearson, Capt. Ralph Ohman, and guard Marv Clein, whipped Amundsen and Taft only to lose by heartbreaking scores to Sullivan and Steinmetz.

Whitney Pearson tied the individual scoring record of 138 points in a season when he tallied on a jump shot against Sullivan in the season final.

Football

ALL fans who witnessed the 1944 Senn Football Team in action will remember it as one of the scrappiest squads ever to represent the school. The Senn Bulldogs, also called the Green Wave because of their powerful offensive ability, won seven games in nine contests and finished in second place in the North Section, losing only to Lane, the new League champion, in Section competition.

Four of the nine contests were real football thrillers. Senn opened their quest for a Sectionship by whipping Amundsen, 1943 titleholders, 7-0. Tex McCracken's one yard plunge provided the game's only score while spectacular line play by captain and right tackle Herb Haberstroh, and right guard Frank Schweiding, halted all Viking offensive threats.

In defeating Taft on Friday, the 13th, the Bulldogs overcame numerous injuries, to earn a 25-20 victory. With two minutes to play, the Green Wave drove 80 yards to score the winning touchdown. The final tally came with 36 seconds to play as Kurt Teichert plunged over.

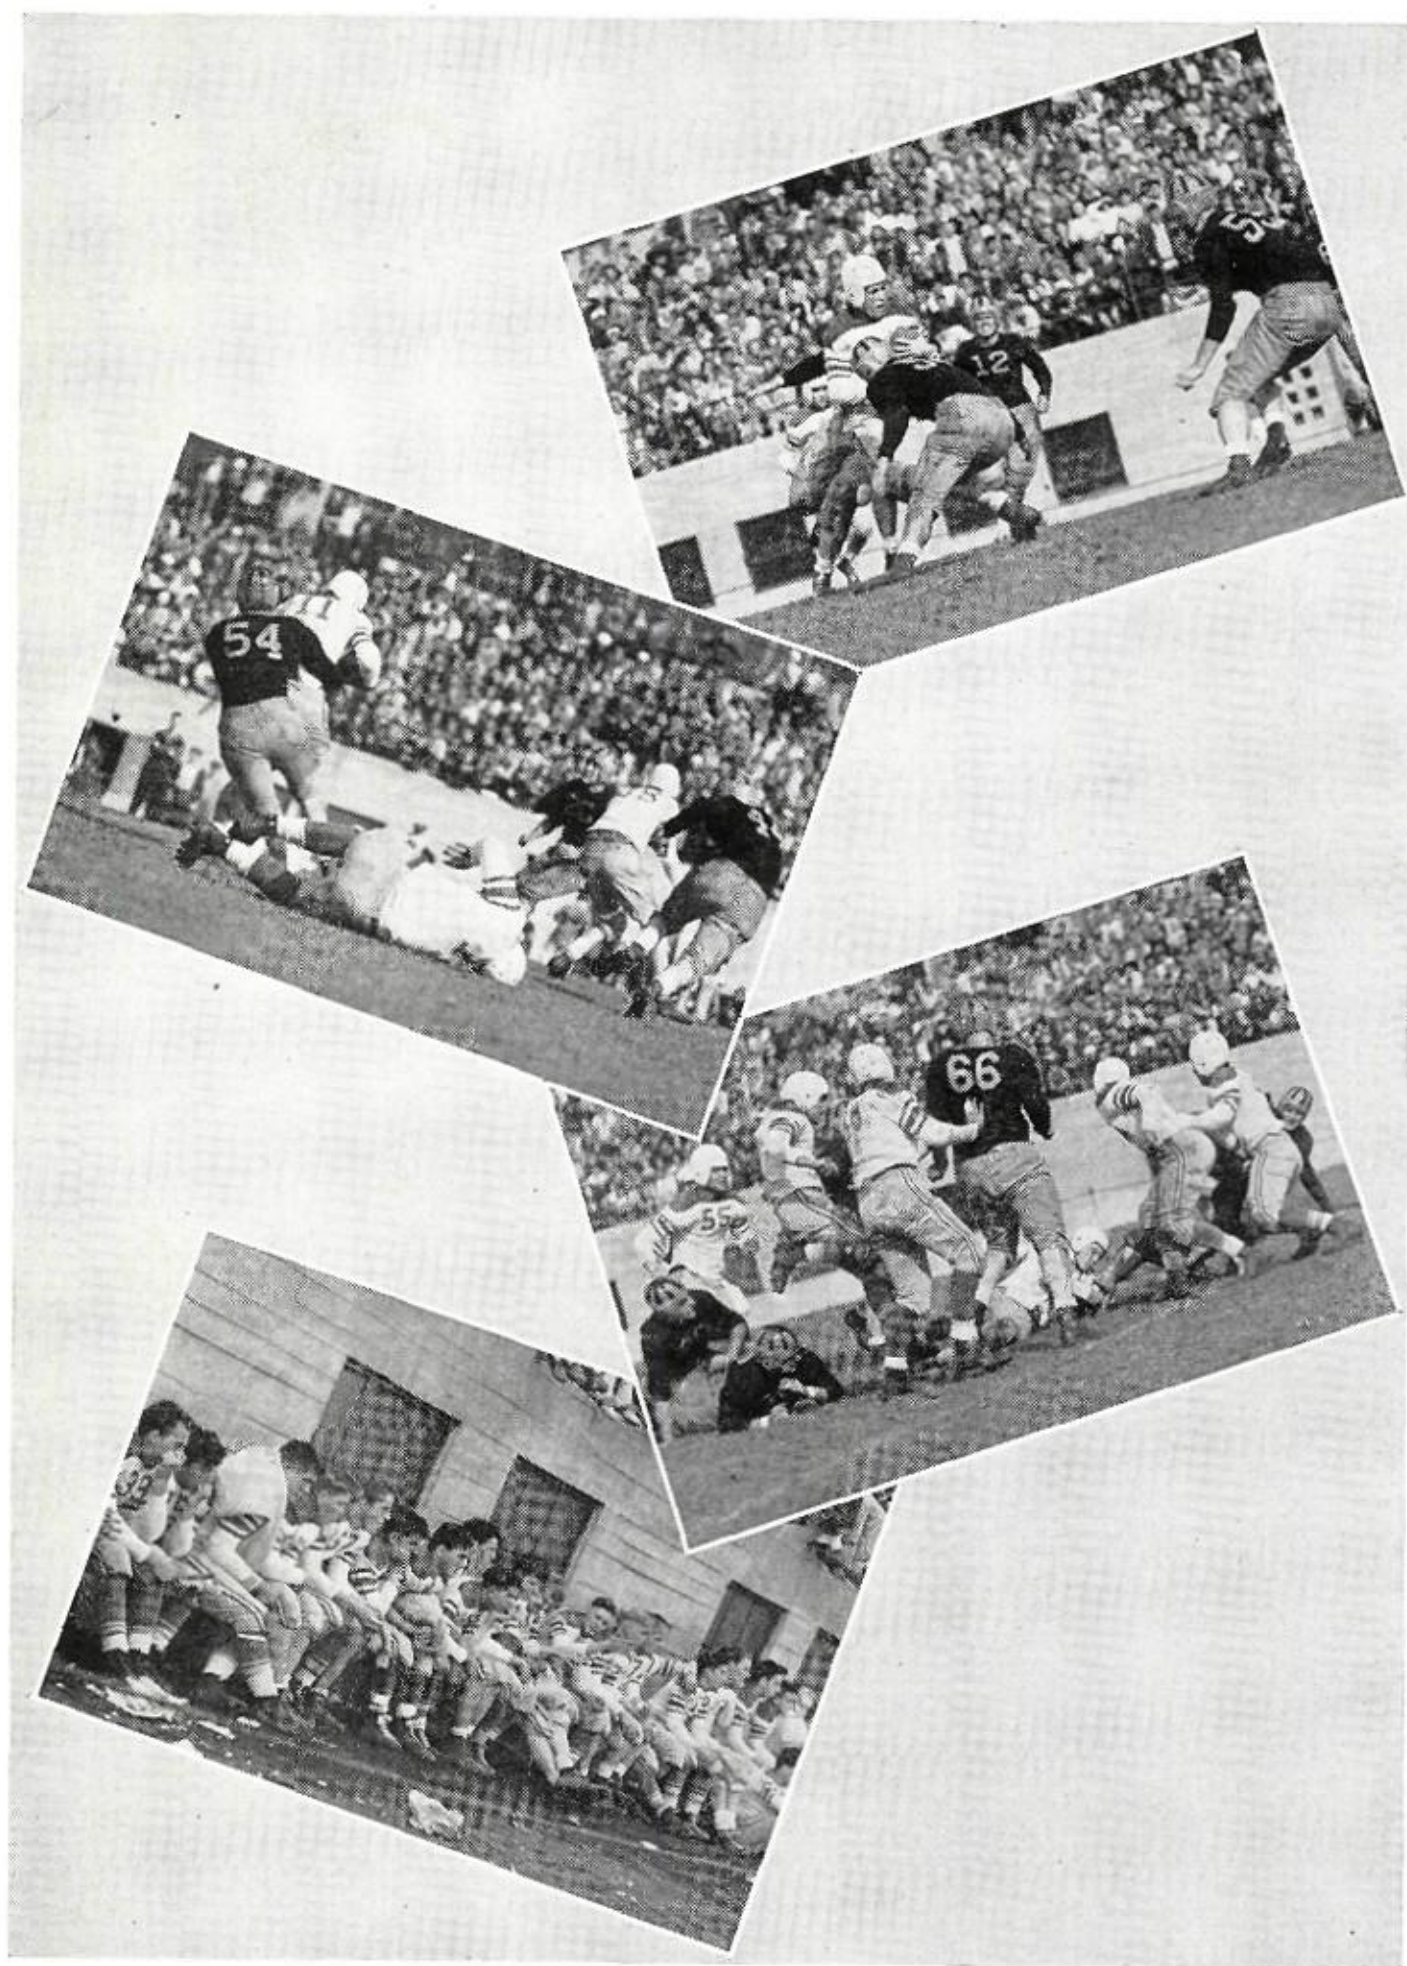

Another sensational win found Senn coming from behind to whip Schurz in a powerful second half rally 19-14.

The Green and Whites' only League loss was a 6-0 heart-breaker at the hands of the new North Section Champions, Lane Tech, in the annual home-coming game on Sept. 30.

In the other two Section encounters, the Green Wave crushed Roosevelt 59-0 behind the three touchdown efforts of Ted Kemp and Paul Gerrish, and with Kemp rewriting the record books with six touchdowns, the Bulldogs humiliated Waller 56-0.

The Season found several members of the team earning all-star recognition. George Assimos, 185 pound guard, was elected to the all-district and all-city teams while Teddy Kemp, Chicago's leading prep scorer with 105 points, and end Eric Nyberg, were mentioned on various all-city squads.

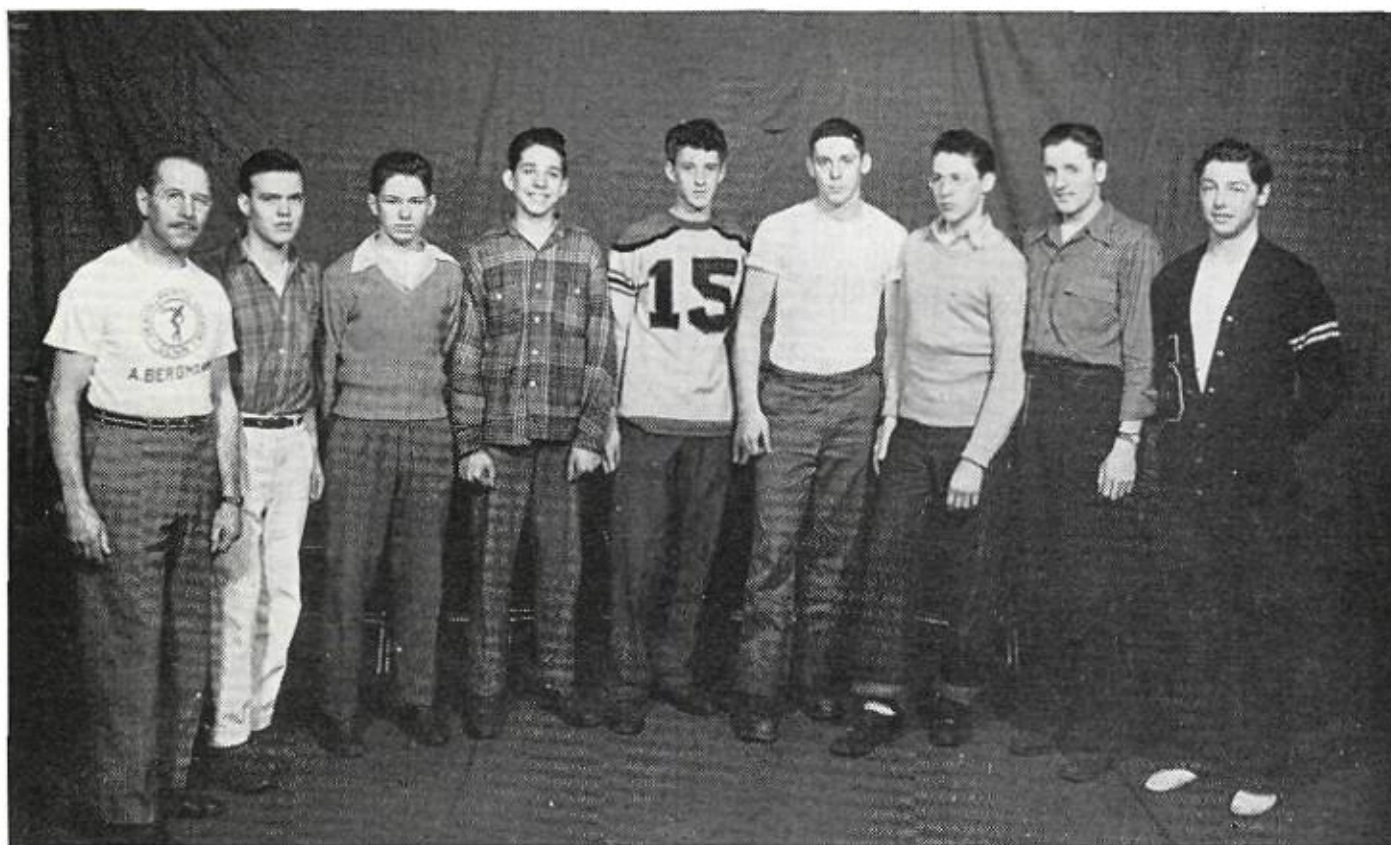

All Section recognition was received by backs Bob Nelson and Paul Garrish, end Kenny Prott, Tackle Herb Haberstroh, and center Lee Stern. Left halfback Wally Sieworth was awarded the Dr. Timmons' blocking trophy, Herb Haberstroh was elected honorary captain by his teammates. The entire squad and their fathers were honored at a banquet held on December 6 at the Illinois Athletic Club.

Ice Skating

COACH BERGMANN'S Ice Skating team can be congratulated for their fine work in the season's annual league meet at the Waveland course of Lincoln Park, even though they did not win first honors.

Fred Gross, last year's Junior 440 victor, moved into the 880 field this year and won first honors. Earl Johnson of the Senior team came in second in the 880. Both of these boys received letters for their outstanding accomplishments. The relay team also received letters and although they did not place in the meet, they displayed a great deal of spirit and teamwork that shows real winners.

The Junior skaters placed second in the meet, losing to Lane Tech by a mere three points. Howard Swanson skimmed over the ice with great speed, but was unable to give that final push which would have placed him first. Howard, however, came in second to give Senn several points. Juniors receiving letters this year are: Howard Swanson for placing second in the 220; Robert Verhulst for third in the 660; the relay team composed of Swanson, Brown, Verhulst, and Gross for giving Senn the first honors in this event. Senn knows you will keep up this good work in the future and wishes you all good luck, fellows.

Fencing

City Champs

TALENTED Bulldog Fencers proved victorious for the fourth time in the ten years existence of the annual Kraft tournament which was held at the Chicago University. The team, which proved spectacular from all angles, was presented with a silver cup after crushing the nine other opposing entries.

Star performers who represented Senn were popular Stuart Sullivan, agile Syl Wiley, and rugged George Black. Wiley and Sullivan, in the Chicago men's foils competition held at the University of Chicago on February 18, tied for fourth place, college men having placed 1-2 ahead of them. These two, who have played so brilliantly all season, plus George Black, have been considered on par with the three musketeers of another century when it comes to whirling a saber. The musketeers overwhelmed, outmaneuvered, and outsmarted their cagey opponents. The boys claim that they owe all of their success to Coach Shaffner, who has been teaching them the tricks of the game since they were freshmen.

The trophy, which was won by a Senn team in 1936, 1937, and 1939, will be kept here until next year's meet, when once again the foilers will attempt to defend the cup. The musketeers, who have practiced many long and faithful hours to perfect their form, were heavy favorites for the city-wide meet held at the Lane Tech gym. A team of four was required, so Coach Shaffner immediately decided on veteran Dick Smith to be the fourth musketeer and to uphold the glorious tradition of the Senn foilers.

Expected to carry on Senn's reputation in the future are Fred Rockwell, who seems to be improving with age, David Stone, Fred Nimitz, Billie Marrion, Glen Layne, Dan Crowley, and Herb Clammage, all of whom have proved to be stalwart performers in a well oiled machine.

Farewell

With the job through and the four years completed the 1945 Annual Staff wishes to thank Mr. C. L. Reyburn of Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company, Mr. Potratz and Mr. Novak of Root Studios, and the Phoenix Printing Company for putting on the final touches.

Also we wish to extend our appreciation to Miss Elizabeth Corcoran and Mr. George Robertson without whose help this book would never have been possible.
